Civil Application No. 3739/2006

Writ Petition No. 4751/2005(Decided)

Appeal Application No. Writ petition	District : of 200

Office Notes, Office Memoranda of Coram, appearances, Court's orders or directions and Registrar's orders.	Court's or Judge's orders

Shri. G. Chatterjee, Adv. for petitioner.
Shri R.G. Agrawal, A.G.P. for respondents.

CORAM : B.R. Gavai, J.
DATED : September 4, 2006.

By way of present civil application, the applicants/petitioners pray for direction to the non-applicant/respondent no.2-Deputy Charity Commissioner to finally decide Change Report Enquiry Nos. 98/1997 and 544/1999, within fifteen days.

Taking into consideration the fact that there are eleven connected proceedings pending, the learned Assistant Government Pleader was asked to take instructions from the Deputy Charity Commissioner as to whether it is possible to decide these two change reports independently.

Shri Agrawal, the learned A.G.P., on instructions from the learned Deputy Charity

Commissioner, makes a statement that all the proceedings are connected and, therefore, it will not be in the interest of justice to decide these two proceedings separately.

In that view of the matter, I am not inclined to grant the present civil application. Civil application is, therefore, rejected.

However, taking into consideration the nature of controversy, the learned Deputy Charity Commissioner is directed to expedite the hearing of the proceedings and dispose of the same as far as possible by the end of December, 2006.
